(ii) If possible, a second medical opinion should always be obtained

(iii) The Head of the office or Department should furnish special explanation of the grounds on which it is proposed to invalid the officer.

2) The three conditions are cumulative and not alternative. In the present case, the first is satisfied and the 2nd & the third are not. The 2nd of the conditions may be dispensed with only in impossible cases. (observe the words "possible" and "always" in the clause). In the mission to satisfy this condition, the Supdt of Police says, it is reported that as the medical officer has given detailed reasons in the certificate, a 2nd medical certificate was not obtained as it is not absolutely laid down in art: 308 (b) M.S.R. that it should be obtained. It is doubtful if this view is correct. Further, in the medical ~~[illegible]~~ certificate now produced ~~[illegible]~~ the sentence "His incapacity does not appear to have

As the medical officer had not given detailed reasons in the certificate, on 18.6.12, for considering the constable unfit for further service, though his recorded age is less than 55 years of age, the constable had to be subjected again for medical examination, and this was not possible before 20.1.13. Hence the delay.
